Professor Torres was a really good professor. And the material for the class was understandable and he had great knowledge to teach the class. The only thing I would probably change for future classsss for him is slowing down the lecture when teaching. But overall was a great professor and would take a class with him again. Also very helpful when it came to exam and papers in class and in office hours

PLEASE READ ALL OF THIS BEFORE THINKING IM JUST BEING BIASED .

he was good, tbh- I don't have much to say because a good professor is only as good as how the student pays attention. if the student doesn't pay attention of course they're not gonna know and of course they're gonna struggle. it's college not hs, the professor can't tell us to pay attention, not eat in class or not use our phones or laptops, so if he gets any bad reviews pls take into consideration that it's anonymous and that the person or student who said it without asking him for help prior or anything like that was probably not paying attention, not studying and not speaking up, the man can't go up to all his students and ask if they're okay, yes he can ask in general but unless the student speaks up, the professor will not know. he was great, that's all I got to say, maybe I will fail his class but that's only because //i didn't pay attention as much as I should've and I did not study, so it's my own fault and not his. and that is why I put strongly agree in all of the bubbles because the man is gr eat, it all depends on who the student is. he gave us so much information, told us if we needed help we can get it, helped us regarding exams, gave us an outline, and answered questions we had . and my review isn't biased I barely met this man this year and no, I don't care much about him, no offense but he's a professor, I've met a lot of them. what he does outside of this class does not affect me in any way . thanks if you've read all of this

Professor Joey Torres , is the most caring professor I've ever taken in Cal State LA. Not only does he care about his students but he takes time to make sure all his students are well prepared in every chapter before the tests. I would strongly take another class with Professor Torres. JOEY IS THE BEST

Professor Torres presented the material that was needed in a timely, organized, and engaging matter. He connected government and what is occurring in these times to reasons why things are the way they are today. The class was engaging, the environment was energetic and welcoming, and the professor was knowledgeable and understanding. If any student needed help in a paper, to study, or had a question he would answer it without a problem. When he teaches he brings the presentation to life. The midterms, tests, and papers all related to what we learned and tested out critical thinking skills. The course was terrific. The professor knew what he was doing and I think he shouldn't change what he is doing

Professor Torres is very fun and engaging, however I wish that his lessons went a bit slower for some students that can't learn as fast as his others. Some of the students were able to pick up things quickly but others got very lost and fell behind because we went so quick in class.

Overall his class was very fun and I wish he taught a subject that I actually liked so I could take another one of his classes. Too bad I hate everything about politics.

The environment in the class was always a great one to come to because Professor Torres always made the lecture interesting and engaging. The course was far more interesting to me because of the fact that he was deeply focused on the topics and making sure we understood. Office hours were always helpful and you always left with a clear explanation.

Professor Torres did an exceptional job at teaching POLS. In his words, "I don't favor the left wing or right wing, we are the the entire bird" and teach the entire bird he did. Professor Torres made sure that he taught the class in an unbiased manner in an interesting and entertaining way. Although his colorful language could be a little bit too extra at times, it's obvious that he genuinely cares about his students and wants them to succeed. I took away a lot of knowledge from this course that has been beneficial and will probably better me as a citizen overall.

Professor Joey is without a doubt an educator who is inspired everyday. He knows his craft extremely well and has a promising future. His pedagogy, meant to awaken the student, may be construed otherwise, and that would be my only critique. He was always available for his students and made me appreciate this material even more.
