J, I enjoyed every lecture, presentation, snippet of music, slideshow,and YouTube video you presented in class. You challenged my thought process and made me analyze things on a deeper level not just from a political scope but in everyday life. I was very pleased working and learning from you. I appreciated the literature assigned in this course. I thoroughly enjoyed this course and have been changed by it. This was by far my most favorite course thus far.

Professor Torres was a very helpful professor who made sure everyone knew the criteria of the class. We all participated and he always made sure we left the class with something new. The work and midterm were both fair to what we should know in this class. I have no complaints for Joey Torres he is a great professor and would definitely take again if I had the chance to.

Overall, the professor taught really well, but there are some instances of being overly generous to those who do fairly poor in the class with assignments. However, he does this in order to give them a second chance at passing the course.

Other than that, he demonstrated his knowledge of the course and managed to thoroughly explain the material in a timely manner. His sense of humor also engages the classroom and keeps the class interesting while still staying on topic.

In the end, he deserves to continue his current position as a professor since he dearly cares for his students to grow educated; this is a quality that many professors not only at CSULA, but in universities around the world lack.

Joey Torres is an amazing professor. Not only is he well prepared, he actually cares about his students truly making an effort to make sure we all understand his lectures and the readings. In his class I felt like the time flew by, and when I looked up it was already time to go. He provides a safe space for all of us to contribute any ideas for discussion and welcomes all opinions. In this class, I truly have learned to comprehend the opposing view and experience dialectic with an individual who has completely different opinions than myself . Professor Joey Torres shares his passion for politics and teaching through his class, I am very pleased and grateful to have had him as a professor.

He is an amazing professor and anyone would be lucky to have him. I love that he clearly breaks up the subject matter into easily to digestible sections and his ability to emphasize the most important parts are extremely helpful to being able to understand the material. My only critique is that he can be slightly more authoritative in the class but it is grasping at straws to find anything to make better. He has even made me consider to go farther in political science, possibly as a minor.

IM WRITING THIS IN CAPS BECAUSE I WANT YOU TO READ IT

Professor Torres is by far the best professor I have had here at CSULA and I have attended the university for almost two years now. No other professor has made me want to come to class and has made me miss the class whenever I didn't have it. His lectures are great, he made them easy to understand and fun to attend. He's one of the few professors that I'll always keep communication with because of how inspiring and helpful he is.

Professor Torres is a great professor.

I don't usually do caring evaluations, but this is by far the only one I have given careful consideration and given full attention to.

I wish him the absolute best and I hope whoever reads this sees how much of an impact he can have on students.

Through out this course there was a lot of concepts given in the material being tough and as well as the homework that consisted a lot of the material. The professor was very explanatory when it came to material that was not understood by the students. As well as, There was group assignments that helped with the understanding of the material and it personally helped me out. I was able to learn from my classmates there understanding of the material and as well as looking at further views of others. The professor would always have a smile on his face and made the class fun the way he was. Over all, this class was a great experience and i learned concepts and my way of thinking expanded.

Professor Torres is a really awesome teacher he actually enjoys what he teaches and it's part of the reason why I think it's a great class overall. I learned a lot from taking this class like Plato and the meaning behind it and how it connects to today's world. Professor Torres makes the class fun, exciting and actually want to learn compared to other professors who just give boring lectures and make you want to leave class. He's fair with everyone in class and gives opportunities to all.

Professor Torres is an amazing professor. He makes the subject of political science entertaining, yet at the same time informative. He donates a lot of time to his office hours and truly tries to help every student out on an individual basis. He was my favorite professor this year and his personal approach to political science really makes the class worthwhile. I would definitely take this class again, if given the option.

He really makes sure you understand the material and will give you as much help as you need. He is one of the better professors. I would definitely take his class again.

Professor Torres made a subject that to me was uninteresting, interesting. The way he taught the course material made the information stick with me and really understand the material taught. Even with little knowledge of the subject, he was able to simplify the subject and catch my interest.

professor really enjoys what he does and cares about every single student. Tried his very best to make the topics understandable. Teacher was always prepared for each class. I don't see how I would've been able to understand this class without Professor Torres.
